- Drafting subpoenas and information requests to gather evidence;
- Interviewing potential witnesses and taking testimony by deposition;
- Reviewing documentary evidence, including medical records;
- Reviewing data analysis evidence related to health care providers' submission of claims to TennCare for reimbursement for services rendered;
- Working with physicians, medical billing coders, and other expert consultants and witnesses;
- Coordinating with other state and federal agencies and enforcers in joint investigations and litigation;
- Analyzing all relevant evidence and formulating legal theories;
- Drafting pleadings, motions, briefs and other court documents;
- Arguing motions and participating in trials; and
- Negotiating settlements

Minimum Qualifications:

- Juris Doctorate required
- Tennessee bar admission or ability to apply for admission without examination
- Strong oral and written skills
- Two or more years civil litigation experience

Preferred Experience

- Health care law experience
- Familiarity with the reimbursement processes for medical services
- Negotiation of settlements
